

RESUME and CV 2009

Judith McDaniel, PhD, JD

JudithMcDaniel@cox.net

4224 E. Marion Trail

Tucson, AZ 85711

520-990-8915

Educator – Senior Administrator
Writer – Author – Program Consultant

Areas of Expertise for Online and Class-based Academic Studies:

- Literature, Nineteenth and Twentieth Century British and American Fiction, Modern American Poetry, Women’s Poetry, Creative Writing
- Women and Law, International Human Rights, Law and Policy
- Social Change Movements in the US, Nonviolent Movements in the US, LGBT Movement—History and Methods, Feminist History, Environmental Activism, Immigration and Refugee Movements
- Gender and Contemporary Society, Women in Western Culture, Women’s Activisms and Organizations, Introduction to Women and Religion

EDUCATION

Rutgers Law School, Newark, J.D.

Tufts University, Ph.D. English Literature

Northeastern University, M.A., English Literature

Exeter University, Devonshire, England, One-year Certificate in literature and history

Antioch College, B.A. Secondary Education

CURRENT POSITIONS

Co-Owner and Online Course Designer: Education and Training Solutions, LLC (www.educationtrainingsolutions.com), Develop online course modules for a variety of educational and training offerings.

Editor, Web-based Course Design, Education, Technology and Change Journal (<http://etcjournal.wordpress.com/>). Write, solicit, and edit articles for this online journal.

Adjunct Professor for Political Science and Women’s Studies, Univ. Arizona. Teaching Women and the Law (blended), Introduction to LGBT Studies (face-to-face), Women in Western Culture (online), Science, Health, Gender and Race (online and face-to-face).

Adjunct Professor, Vermont College, ADP. Virtual Vermont—Mentoring online studies in Literature, International Human Rights, Social Change Movements in the US, Environmental Activisms, Gender, History of the LGBT Movement in the US, and Creative Writing.

LEGAL EDUCATION FIELD EXPERIENCE

Newark NJ Civil Court, Mediator, spring 2007. Mediator for court-mandated mediation program in Civil Court, mediating cases before and/or instead of court hearing. Field placement for Rutgers Law School Mediation class.

Employment Discrimination Research Associate, Prof. Suzanne Goldberg, fall 2006. Emphasis on legal and administrative regulations governing discrimination based on defined classifications, with particular emphasis on age discrimination.

Center for Constitutional Rights, Intern, fall 2006.

- Maher Arar Case—Research in preparation for a Freedom of Information request to the U.S. government regarding Arar’s rendition from JFK Airport to Syria.
- International Criminal Court—research for Amicus Brief supporting the inclusion of gender crimes in the case of Thomas Lubango Dyilo (Congo) regarding child soldiers.

Lawyers’ Committee on Nuclear Policy, Research Associate, summer 2006.

- Iran and the Security Council—research on UN Chapter VI and VII resolutions, drafted a memo with suggestions for a Security Council approach.
- International Court of Justice—research on issue of good faith in treaty negotiations as a group of international NGOs consider returning to the court.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Consulting Business, Grants, Proposals, and Projects (Selected) 1987-2008

- Trainings in Title IX Compliance for post-secondary education institutions.
 - Assist schools in creating complaint procedures for students and staff.
 - Develop investigative process for receiving complaints.
 - Train Title IX Coordinators in complaint investigation and staff education about sexual harassment and other unlawful harassments.
- Mexican Capital Legal Assistance Project. Research and article for a law journal regarding this program’s effort to ensure right of Mexican citizens facing the death penalty in the U.S. to secure consular assistance in their defense.
- Professional Ethics. Developed an on-line course in Ethics for healthcare professionals. Created the curriculum, modified it for interactive web use, and taught the course on-line for three years.
- Workshops and talks on competency-based education in post-secondary institutions.
- Arizona Area Health Education Centers Program. Worked with the state program office and five regional program centers to create program descriptions.
- A’Al We:Pek/Children First, San Xavier District, Tohono O’Odham Nation, Tucson, AZ. Development of Informational Prospectus and grant proposals for prevention programs for at-risk children.

Adjunct Professor, Shenandoah University, Winchester, VA, 2006

- Taught course in Philosophy of Education for Ph.D. students in Education Department.

Deputy Director, Southern Arizona AIDS Foundation, Tucson, AZ, 2002-2004

Provided program oversight and development for the only AIDS service organization in Southern Arizona—

- directed research and wrote successful grant applications to national and state funders;
- supervised 50 staff in Client Services, Prevention, and Housing Departments;
- served as organizational Institutional Review Board Officer for human subjects research;
- conducted regular organizational trainings on supervision, diversity, and other topics.

Director, Peace Unit, American Friends Service Committee, Philadelphia, PA 2000-2002

Directed peace education project for a social activist organization—

- managed a 1.2 million dollar budget and set programmatic and fundraising priorities;
- administered foundation grants, ensured evaluation and reporting;
- conflict negotiation and resolution facilitation;
- supervised international programs with emphases on Iraq, Israel/Palestine, Colombia, Southern Africa and domestic programs with emphases on anti-militarism, global capitalism (including NAFTA and FTAA), and conflict resolution.

Adjunct Professor, Women's Studies, University of Arizona, Tucson, AZ 1996-2000

Directed Internship Program and taught Women's Activisms class

- Taught courses on a variety of Women's Studies topics.

Mentor, Prescott College, Tucson, AZ 1993-5. Mentored students in the adult degree program in writing projects and literature studies.

Professor, Adult Degree Program, Vermont College, Montpelier, VT 1990-1992

Directed independent study projects in creative writing, English and American literature.

Assistant Professor, Skidmore College, Saratoga Springs, NY. 1975-82,

Taught Women in Literature, Contemporary Women Poets, Black Women Writers.

Assistant Professor, Middlebury College, Middlebury, VT, 1973-5.

BOOK PUBLICATIONS (Selected)

Taking Risks, poems, Rising Tides Press, 2001

Yes I Said Yes I Will, a novel, Naiad Press, 1996

The Lesbian Couples Guide, HarperCollins, 1995

Just Say Yes, a novel, Firebrand Books, 1991

Metamorphosis: Reflections on Recovery, Firebrand Books, 1989

Sanctuary: A Journey, poems and essays, Firebrand Books, 1987

Winter Passage, a novel, Spinsters Ink, 1984

November Woman, poems, The Loft Press, 1983

GRANTS AND AWARDS (SELECTED)

New York University Law School LSPIN Summer Public Interest Law grant for internship with Lawyers' Committee. 2006

Harvard University, Schlesinger Women's History Library, Research Grant, 2000
Overbrook Foundation, New York City, Writing Grant, 1999
Ingram Merrill Foundation, New York City, Writing Grant, 1991
New York State Council on the Arts, Writer in Residence, 1985
National Endowment for the Arts, Editor's Grant, 1983

SELECTED LITERARY CRITICISM, ESSAYS, INTERVIEWS, AND REVIEWS:

- "Creating the Need to Know," Education, Technology and Change Journal, May, 2009, available at: <http://etcjournal.wordpress.com/2009/05/20/creating-the-need-to-know/>.
- "US Obstructionism in the World Struggle Against Small Arms and Light Weapons," In Peaceworks (AFSC), Issue 369, October 2006. Available at: <http://www.peaceworksmagazine.org/us-obstructionism-world-struggle-against-small-arms-and-light-weapons>.
- "Shaping the Sixties: The Emergence of Barbara Deming," in Impossible to Hold: Women and Culture in the 1960s, ed. Avital Bloch and Lauri Umansky (NYU Press) 2005, pp. 196-216.
- "Creating an International Perspective on Local Activism," [expanded version] in Internationalizing the Curriculum, ed. Mary Lay (New York: Feminist Press), 2002, pp. 265-271.
- "The Outrageous Act as Gender Busting: An Experiential Challenge to Gender Roles," with Sandra Shattuck and Judy Nolte Temple in Teaching Introduction to Women's Studies, ed. Barbara Scott Winkler and Carolyn DiPalma (CT: Bergin and Garvey Press) 1999, pp. 201-212.
- "Review of A Reader's Guide to U.S. Women's History," in Soujourner, Sept. 1998.
- "Reflections on the Warriors," Journal of Women and Religion, Vol. 14, 1996, pp.16-22.
- "Biographical Essay," in Prisons That Could Not Hold by Barbara Deming, reissued by Univ. Georgia Press, 1995.
- "Barbara Deming entry," in American National Biography. NC:Oxford Univ. Press, 1994.
- "Reconstituting the World: the Poetry and Vision of Adrienne Rich," in Adrienne Rich's Poetry and Prose, ed. Barbara Charlesworth Gelpi and Albert Gelpi (NY: Norton), 1993, pp. 310-321.
- "Three Women Who Refused to Fight: Interviews from the Gulf War," Listen Real Loud, Vol. 11, No. 2, 1992, pp. 8-11.
- "Taking Risks: The Creation of Feminist Literature," in Bridges of Power: Women's Multicultural Alliances, ed. Lisa Albrecht and Rose M. Brewer (Philadelphia, PA: New Society Publishers), 1990, pp. 122-8.
- "One Summer at Seneca," in Faces and Tongues: Poetry and Prose About People and War, ed. Gary Erb (Boulder, CO: Laughing Waters Press), 1986, pp. 85-98.
- "Teaching Contemporary Black Women Writers," with Linda Berry, Radical Teacher, (Winter, 1980-1), 7-10.
- "An Interview with Muriel Rukeyser," Feminist Review of Books, 10 (Spring, 1980), 4-5.
- "Charlotte Bronte and the Feminist Novel," Univ. of Michigan Papers in Women's Studies, II, 3(1977), pp. 90-98.
- "The Transformation of Silence into Language and Action," with Julia Stanley, Mary Daly, Audre Lorde, and Adrienne Rich, Sinister Wisdom, No. 6 (Summer, 1978), pp. 15-6. [A talk originally given at the M.L.A. Convention, December, 1977, in Chicago].
- "Wallace Stevens and the Scientific Imagination," Contemporary Literature, XV, 2 (Spring, 1974), pp. 221-37.

SELECTED STORIES IN ANTHOLOGIES AND JOURNALS:

- "The Juliette Low Legacy," Women On Women, ed. Joan Nestle and Naomi Holoch. New York: Penguin Books, 1990, pp. 123-134.
- "Scouts on the Saranac," Rivers Running Free: Stories of Adventurous Women, ed. Judith Niemi and Barbara Wieser. Minneapolis: Bergamot Books, 1987, pp. 27-32.
- "Present Danger," Fight Back, ed. Frederique Delacoste and Felice Newman. Minneapolis: Cleis Press, 1981, pp. 3-13.
- "Learning to Walk," A Woman's World, ed. Marybeth Bond. San Francisco, CA: Travelers' Tales, Inc., 1995.

SELECTED POEMS IN ANTHOLOGIES AND JOURNALS:

- "Grand Canyon," in Southwestern Women: New Voices, Tucson, AZ: Javelina Press, 1997.
- "The Descent," "Coming Back," "We Pull Off the Road Just Past Amarillo," in In A Different Light, ed. Carolyn Weathers and Jenny Wrenn. Los Angeles: Clothspin Fever Press, 1989, pp. 173-181.
- "Snow in April," "November Passage," "Splitting Elm," "November Woman," and "Boundaries," in North Country: An Anthology of Contemporary Writing from the Adirondacks, ed. Joseph Bruchac et al. Greenfield, NY: The Greenfield Press, 1986, pp. 264-271.
- "Making It Safe For Charles" and "Crossing the Border," in Gates To The City: The Albany Tricentennial Anthology, ed. Jeanne Finley, et al. Albany, NY: Tricentennial Commission, 1986, pp. 78-84.
- "When Mother Died, Rows of Cans," and "Snow in April," in Woman Poet: East, ed. Marilyn Hacker. Reno, NV: Women In Literature, Inc., 1981, p. 81.

COMMUNITY PARTICIPATION

- Board of Directors, Arizona American Civil Liberties Union, 2007.
- City of Tucson Commission on Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual & Transgender Issues, 2003-2005. Commissioner appointed by the Mayor and City Council.
- Board of Directors, American Friends Service Committee (AFSC), Philadelphia, PA, 1995-2000.
- Volunteer for the Nature Conservancy at Muleshoe Ranch in AZ, 1993-2003.
- Delegate to United Nations NGO Forum on Women, Beijing, China, 1995
Representative for the American Friends Service Committee and the Center for Women and Religion, Graduate Theological Union, Berkeley, CA.
- Witness for Peace Delegate, Nicaragua, 1985
Member of the August, 1985, delegation on the Rio San Juan, captured by the Contras, published Sanctuary: A Journey, an account and analysis of that experience.